3. Reward, rapidly.

Points, your incentive currency, can be awarded in real time. Participants can redeem, in-app, any time.

Make points more potent.

You can set up program rules as you want, rewarding the behaviours you need. Points are always visible, so participants are motivated constantly instead of just monthly.

Make redemption more relaxed.

Points can be redeemed easily, immediately, any time, in app, in a variety of different ways, including:
